

Mr. M. Nithiyakumar has completed his Diploma in Textile Technology at PSG Polytechnic College in Coimbatore in the year 1998. He started his carrier as a shift supervisor in a spinning mill and continued as a production coordinator. Then he worked as a Merchandiser for a home textile company along by doing his B.Tech degree in Textile Technology at PSG College of Technology in Coimbatore. He completed his B.Tech. in the year of 2004. Then he did his M.Tech. Textile Technology at PSG College of Technology in Coimbatore in the period of 2005 – 07. After his Post Graduation, he worked as a Lecturer in SSM School of Textile Management and then joined as a Manager – Garments and Projects in a vertically integrated textile manufacturing company, UTEXRWA, Rwanda, Africa. He has played an important role in developing Silk industry, Insecticidal Mosquito nets and also in the development of Banana fibres in Africa. After his foreign assignments he shared his experience in various garment and home textile industries to develop new projects. Presently he is working as an Assistant Professor in Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International School of Textile Management, Coimbatore to share his vast industrial experience with the new generation.